Minutes of Meeting

Introductory Session:

On 07-07-2022 at 1:00 PM, the initial meeting of the Anti-Ragging committee took place in the Principal's Office. Dr. Anu Rathee, the Convenor of the Anti-Ragging committee, greeted all committee members and elucidated the meeting's agenda.

Discussion Session:

Following a concise introduction of each member, the action plan was finalized:

Initially, members were asked to aware the students of dehumanizing effect of ragging.

Members were tasked with assessing the condition of Anti-Ragging banners displayed across various locations in the college, determining whether they require repair or replacement.

They were suggested to verify the presence of message/complaint boxes near academic areas.

The committee planned to gently remind admission committee members to make it obligatory for every student admitted to the college to provide an undertaking against ragging.

The committee was proposed to maintain vigilant watch of all activities conducted in the college throughout the year to prevent instances of ragging.

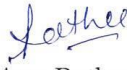

To create informal platform to advise girl students to regulate their own interactions and movements.

The schedule for the next meeting was also finalized.

Concluding Session:

Meeting was concluded by vote of thanks given by Principal, Dr. Narender Singh.
